The Trust award grants on application to young people twice a year and was established in 1971.

The object of the Trust is to help and educate young people, mainly between the ages of 13-18 years, through the art and craft of outdoor and indoor pursuits so as to develop their physical, mental and spiritual capacities that they may grow to full maturity as individual and members of society and that their conditions of life may be improved and in furtherance thereof and as ancillary thereto establish, maintain and manage activity centres.

The trustees of the Trust are: Tom Harrison, Stephen Watts, Sarah Glasswell and Charlotte Harlow

Secretary: Marian Merch-Chammon
